Prepared to Your Specifications

At our state-of-the-art crab processing plant, our highly skilled workers handle our crab with great care to produce a product we are proud to say is the envy of the marketplace. Within hours of landing, we prepare sections, legs, meat and cocktail claws by hand. And if you have special needs, we want to meet them. We would be happy to supply crab according to your exact specifications.

Shrimp

Direct from the Sea to our Plant

Fresh shrimp is quality shrimp. The sooner it goes from the sea to market, the better the quality of product. The taste of our shrimp is the best testimony to its freshness. Our fishers land the shrimp direct from the sea to our plant where it is readied for market within hours. That means pride in product. That means top quality shrimp.
